

Federal Highway Administration

December 2020 Talking TIM Webinar

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration

Today's Talking TIM Webinar

- Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) Role in TIM – Dale Picha, Traffic Operations Manager at Texas DOT will discuss how ITE advances TIM in the "Meet the Executive Leadership Group" series.
- TIM Benefit/Cost Tool – Pavle Bujanovic, Technical Manager at FHWA's Turner Fairbanks Highway Research Center will demo a simple tool to support agencies quantify the costs and benefits from TIM programs.
- JAWS Debris Remover Demonstration and Kansas City Scout Overview – Marcus Slaughter, Kansas City Scout Incident Management Coordinator at the Missouri DOT will highlight the KC Scout program and JAWS use.
- Getting the Most from Your National Responder Training Reports – Katie Belmore, HNTB will offer strategies to leverage training reports.

Wednesday, January 27, 2021 1:30 - 3:00 PM

- The International Association of Fire Chiefs (IAFC) Role in TIM – Chief Norris Croom III, IAFC EMS Section Director, will highlight IAFC's role in TIM and challenges in the practice of TIM among fire and rescue personnel as a part of the "Meet the Executive Leadership Group" series.
- Digital Alert Pilots in St Louis and Kansas City – Ashley M. Buechter, Traffic Liaison Engineer at Missouri DOT will highlight two different tools to notify travelers of response activity using the Waze platform. She will also summarize their State Transportation Innovation Council Grant Process.
- FHWA Every Day Counts Round Six (EDC-6) NextGen TIM Overview – FHWA experts will provide an overview of the opportunities with NextGen TIM and how you can participate.

